1973/79 TRUCK SERIES 100/500

HOW TO FIND CARBURETORS

To select the correct carburetor the following information must be known and utilized—

- Year
- Truck line (F100, E350, U150, etc.)
- Engine (6 cyl. 4.9L–300 C.I.D., 8 cyl. 5.8L–351 C.I.D., etc.)
- Transmission (manual, automatic, etc.)
- Other factors (California, hi–altitude, etc.)
- In some cases, more than one service carburetor may be specified in the catalog based on the above information. In these cases the identification part number shown on the carburetor is also required.

For example:

If a carburetor is required for a 1977 E100 with an 8 cylinder 5.8L (351W C.I.D.) engine, automatic transmission, used in Canada and 49 states (except California)—

- Refer to 8 cyl. 5.8L (351)
- Read down to find "1977 E100 -- A/T–exc. Calif. 8 (cyl.) 351W (C.I.D.)".

The service part numbers listed for this application are D7UZ 9510–Y and D7PZ 9510–AF. Therefore, to select the correct service part number, the identification part number shown on the carburetor taken from the vehicle, must be used.

IDENTIFICATION CHART

WIRING MARKING or TAG NUMBER TO SERVICE WIRING PART NUMBER GUIDE

The purpose of this guide is to facilitate the identification of the Service Wiring Part Number. The chart that follows lists in numerical sequence the Wiring Markings or Tag Numbers. For many vehicles the Service Wiring Part Number will be the same as the Wiring Marking or Tag Part Number. This type of replacement will cause little or no installation problems. However, when the Service Wiring differs from the Wiring Marking or Tag Number it will be necessary to match lead wires and to tape up those lead wires which are not required. This is necessary when the Service Wiring has a more general application than the original wiring installed by the factory. Following this guide chart, Service Wiring Part Numbers are listed by model year and vehicle usage which will permit the identification of replacement wiring when the wiring identification marking or tag number is not known.

WIRING MARKING or TAG NUMBER TO SERVICE WIRING PART NUMBER GUIDE

The purpose of this guide is to facilitate the identification of the Service Wiring Part Number. The chart that follows lists in numerical sequence the Wiring Loom Markings or Tag Numbers. For many vehicles the Service Wiring Part Number will be the same as the Loom Marking or Tag Part Number. This type of replacement will cause little or no installation problems. However, when the Service Wiring differs from the Loom Marking or Tag Number it will be necessary to match lead wires and to tape up those lead wires which are not required. This is necessary when the Service Wiring has a more general application than the original wiring installed by the factory. Following this guide chart, Service Wiring Part Numbers are listed by model year and vehicle usage which will permit the identification of replacement wiring when the loom identification marking or tag number is not known.

WIRING MARKING or TAG NUMBER TO SERVICE WIRING PART NUMBER GUIDE

The purpose of this guide is to facilitate the identification of the Service Wiring Part Number. The chart that follows lists in numerical sequence the Wiring Markings or Tag Numbers. For many vehicles the Service Wiring Part Number will be the same as the Wiring Marking or Tag Part Number. This type of replacement will cause little or no installation problems. However, when the Service Wiring differs from the Wiring Marking or Tag Number it will be necessary to match lead wires and to tape up those lead wires which are not required. This is necessary when the Service Wiring has a more general application than the original Wiring installed by the factory. Following this guide chart, Service Wiring Part Numbers are listed by model year and vehicle usage which will permit the identification of replacement wiring when the wiring identification marking or tag number is not known.

WIRING MARKING or TAG NUMBER TO SERVICE WIRING PART NUMBER GUIDE

The purpose of this guide is to facilitate the identification of the Service Wiring Part Number. The chart that follows lists in numerical sequence the Wiring Markings or Tag Numbers. For many vehicles the Service Wiring Part Number will be the same as the Wiring Marking or Tag Part Number. This type of replacement will cause little or no installation problems. However, when the Service Wiring differs from the Wiring Marking or Tag Number it will be necessary to match lead wires and to tape up those lead wires which are not required. This is necessary when the Service Wiring has a more general application than the original wiring installed by the factory. Following this guide chart, Service Wiring Part Numbers are listed by model year and vehicle usage which will permit the identification of replacement wiring when the wiring identification marking or tag number is not known.

19C705-8 REFRIGERANT LINE REPLACEMENT and REPAIR PARTS

To simplify part number determination and complexity and to reduce look-up time for air conditioning hoses the following summary describes the various service methods:

1. Hose originally used in production is serviced.

Example: Original production part number D2UA 19835-AA is supplied for service as part number D2UZ 19835-A as shown on page 8 of the IDENTIFICATION CHART and on page 7 of the APPLICATION CHART.

2. Hose originally used in production is serviced, or a "Simplified" hose is available for service.

Example. If a discharge Line is required for a 1973/ E200 with integral air conditioning with dual evaporator the Application Chart (on page 6) indicates (1) that the hose assembly is serviced as part number C9ZZ 19972-C (simplified hose) and (2) that the hose may be fabricated from -27" of 13/32" I.D. bulk hose (part number D2AZ 19C708-B), one piece of Fitting Code G44 (part number D2AZ 19D695-AA and one piece of Fitting Code J44 (part number D2AZ 19D695-AJ).

Air Conditioning hose information is listed as follows:

INSTALLATION INSTRUCTIONS

HOSE GUARDS

FOAM RUBBER SLEEVE: To protect 5/8" rubber air conditioner hose from direct rubbing against other parts and to reduce hose vibration noise.

5/8" HOSE

APPLY ADHESIVE BETWEEN FOAM AND HOSE ON BOTH ENDS TO SECURE

P-9312

ALUMINUM SLEEVE: To protect 13/32" discharge hose where hose contacts sharp edges in routing through the radiator side support.

13/32" HOSE

APPLY ADHESIVE AROUND HOSE AT DESIRED LOCATION AND SLIDE SLEEVE OVER ADHESIVE
INTO POSITION

P-9313

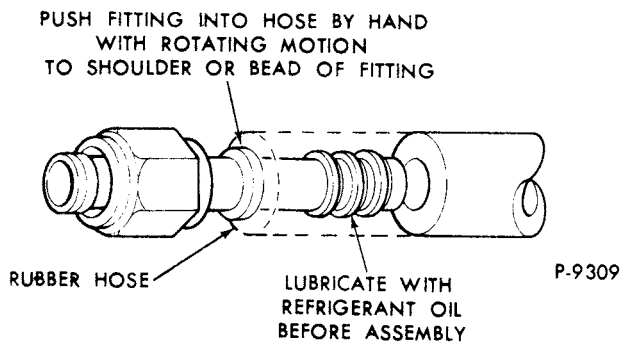

1. Slide sleeve on hose before installing end fittings.
NOTE: Sleeve can be cut lengthwise and formed around other hose sizes.
2. Use COAZ 19552-A or 8A 19552-B adhesive to secure sleeve in desired position.

DETAIL PARTS and HOSE ASSEMBLIES

1. Note defective hose routing before removal.
2. Repair existing rubber or nylon hose on vehicle if feasible.
 - a. Repair cuts and similar failures, in otherwise sound existing hose assemblies, by using one push-on hose splicer or two splicers with the required length of bulk hose.
3. Remove defective hose if splicing is not acceptable.
 - a. Discharge the system if not completely discharged, following the procedure outlined in the shop manual.
 - b. For those liquid lines (5/16" I.D.) having a self-sealing, quick disconnect coupling on one end, the coupling should be left on the vehicle. The new hose assembly will adapt into this coupling with 1/2"-20 male thread and an external o-ring seal.
4. Assemble the new hose as shown below if component parts are used.

- a. Select proper end fittings, splicers, hose guards, hose assembly. A visual comparison is required for applications not listed.
- b. Cut hose to required length. Keep ends square and remove loose fragments.
- c. Lubricate barbed end of fittings and splicers with a few drops of clean refrigerant oil.

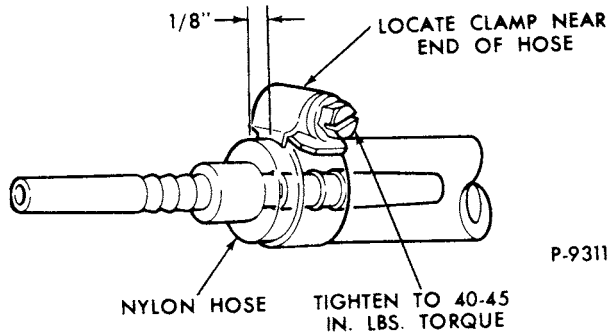

- d. Slide loose clamps on hose, force fittings into hose (by hand) with rotating motion.

CAUTION: Do not past shoulder or scratch fitting with tools, this fitting must be inserted by hand.
- e. Position clamp so that spacer tab is over end of rubber hose and tighten until clamp starts to cut hose. (Tighten to 35-40 in. lbs. torque)

- f. For nylon hose splicers only, position clamp approx. 1/8" from end of hose (tighten to 40-45 in. lbs. torque)

P-9311

5. Route the new hose, using the original installation as a guide.
If simplified hose with aluminum tubing and splicer is used, bend the tubing as outlined below:

- a. Bend the aluminum tubing by hand to replace the bends of the original hose, making the bends as simple as possible.
- b. Drill new holes through the radiator support and side shield as required to make the installations using simplified tube bends.

6. Install and torque new hose assembly.

NOTE: When installing assembly, tighten coupling nut finger tight, then torque per chart below using a back-up tube wrench. Further tightening may distort fitting and result in an imperfect seal. Be sure that o-ring is in place on o-ring type fittings. Hoses must be installed with no twist in them.

| Pressure relief valve (into block) fitting | 3/8"-24 | 20-30 | |
| | | 4-11 | |

7. Rework the existing hose support clamps if required.

- a. Check for correct installation and proper routing for clearance with other vehicle components.
- b. Evacuate, charge and leak test the system following the procedure outlined in the vehicle shop manual.

APPLICATION CHART

To determine the correct hose part number or detail part numbers you must know:

1. Series (F100, E100, etc.)
2. Year (1973)
3. Hose function (Discharge Line, Liquid Line or Suction Line)
4. Type of Air Conditioning System (Hang-on or Integral)
5. Engine (number of cylinders and cubic inch displacement)

Example No. 1 If a discharge Line is required for a 1973 E200 with integral air conditioning with dual evaporator the Application Chart (on page 6) indicates (1) that the hose assembly is serviced as part number C9ZZ 19972-C (simplified hose) and (2) that the hose may be fabricated from 27" of 13/32" I.D. bulk hose (part number D2AZ 19C708-B), one piece of Fitting Code G44 (part number D2AZ 19D695-AA and one piece of Fitting Code J44 (part number D2AZ 19D695-AJ).

Example No. 2 If a Suction Line (Evaporator to Compressor) is required for a 1973 F250 with integral air conditioning the Application Chart (on page 7) indicates (1) that the hose assembly is serviced as part number D3TZ 19867-A (original production only available) and (2) that the hose cannot be fabricated from bulk hose and assorted fittings.

To determine the correct hose part number or detail part numbers you must either:

1. Know the identification number from the existing hose.

or

2. Be able to visually identify the existing hose and select appropriate details from the Fitting Cross-Reference Chart shown on pages 9 through 15.

Example No. 1. If the identification number is D4TA 19972-AA, the Identification Chart shown below indicates (1) that the service assembly number is D4TZ 19972-C and (2) that the hose may be fabricated from - 35" of 13/32" I.D. bulk hose (part number D2AZ 19C708-B), one piece of Fitting Code G44 (part number D2AZ 19D695-AA) and one piece of Fitting Code J44 (part number D2AZ 19D695-AJ).

FITTING CROSS-REFERENCE CHART

There are two ways of selecting hose and fitting part numbers.

1. From Code Number (shown in the Identification or Application Charts) to the Part Number listed below.
2. From a visual inspection of the existing hose and selection of appropriate details using the following instructions:
 - a. Determine Fitting Size.
Diameter of tube at a point behind the nut indicates fitting size, e.g. 3/8", 1/2", 5/8" or 3/4".

Select Fittings and Splicers from the illustrations and text that follows. The necessary clamps and o-rings are included with all Fittings and Splicers and are also supplied for service as separate parts.

FITTINGS

Determine Fitting size from the information shown below:

| ORIGINAL TUBE O.D. | FRACTIONAL FITTING SIZE | INDUSTRY SIZE NO. | THREAD SIZE | |
|-----------------------|----------------------------|----------------------|--|----------------------|
| | | | SAE45° FLARE O-RING (FEMALE) O-RING (MALE FLARE) | O-RING (MALE SWIVEL) |
| 5/16" | 3/8" | 6 | 5/8"-18 | 5/8"-18 |
| 13/32" | 1/2" | 8 | 3/4"-16 | 3/4"-18 |
| 1/2" | 5/8" | 10 | 7/8"-14 | 7/8"-18 |
| 5/8" | 3/4" | 12 | 1 1/16"-14 | 1 1/16"-16 |

- b. Determine Hose Size.
Measure end of tube (not barbs). The tube O.D. matches the I.D. of the required hose e.g. tube O.D. is 5/16" and hose I.D. is 5/16" (size No. 6, part number D2AZ 19C708-A).

BULK RUBBER HOSE

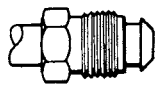

Select the appropriate Hose from the sizes listed below:

| ORIGINAL TUBE O.D. | REPLACEMENT HOSE I.D. | INDUSTRY SIZE NO. | PART NUMBER | MOTORCRAFT NUMBER |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|----------------------|--------------------|----------------------|
| 5/16" | 5/16" | 6 | D2AZ 19C708-A(15') | *YF-248 |

BODY BOLT CHART

INSTRUCTIONS

Truck bodies for Conventional Cabs (body type 81) and Pickups (body types 83 and 99) are assembled to the frame by various bolts and related parts, also the radiator support on F100/350.

The illustrations on the next page show typical examples of a Conventional Cab frame and a Pickup frame. The body bolt locations are numbered consecutively beginning at the radiator support from 1 to 9 as required for F100/350 and 1 and 2 for F500. For quick identification the related parts used at each location are arranged alphabetically as follows.

Absorbers Bolts Insulators Nuts Retainers Washers

EXTERIOR MOULDING SECTION

For your convenience the exterior moulding, vinyl tape stripe and exterior name plate illustrations have been merged with related text information to form a combined Exterior Moulding (text and illustrations) Section.

This section includes illustrations and part number information for Box (quarter panel and tailgate), Cab (body side, back window and roof), Back End (E100/350 only), Windshield moulding areas, tape stripes and name plates of the vehicle.

To simplify locating the appropriate illustration this section is arranged by series, i.e., E100/350 and F100/500. Within each series the illustrations and related part number information are generally arranged as follows:

- windshield mouldings
- body side mouldings (E100/350 only)
- cab mouldings (F100/500 only)
- box mouldings (F100/500 only)
- back end mouldings (E100/350 only)
- tape stripes
- name plates
- door edge guards

All retainer information (illustrations and part numbers) is shown in Exterior Moulding Section "R".

Refer to the Index which follows to determine the correct section and page number (or row and column number on your microform transparency).

CAMPER

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This "American Road" Slide-In Camper Section consists of illustrations and related text pages for the Camper body and furnishings only. All other chassis and body parts normally associated with the F350 Pickup are listed in their respective area of this Master Catalog. Parts are identified on illustrations by means of a figure number (FIG. NO.) and this "FIG. NO." may be correlated to a part number in the accompanying text portion.

PARTS

In addition to the part number, these parts will also list title, description (where necessary) and quantity per vehicle.

In the absence of a part number certain parts are listed as "N.P.N." (No Part Number). Orders for these parts should include Section, page and figure number, title and description of the part required.

Other parts list a black star (★) which indicates that these items must be procured locally or improvised.
